

CHANGE THE WORLD
LOVE YOUR JOB

We're changing the world.
One chip at a time.

Finance or Sales Operations Intern (m/f) – 20204BR

Working here will provide you with real-world exposure which will be invaluable after you graduate. You will have a rewarding experience as part of our Finance and Operations department in one of the below positions:

THE OPENINGS

- Receivables and Credit Internship
- Treasury Internship
- Financial Controlling and Accounting Internship
- Business Finance Internship
- Education Technology Finance and Tax Internship
- Sales Operations Internship

YOUR QUALIFICATIONS

- Student of finance, accounting, business administration, economics, industrial engineering, supply chain management, logistics management or related field
- Very good communication skills in English, written and spoken, German language skills would be a plus
- Very good ability to work in a team and strong analytical skills
- Very good knowledge of MS Office, with advanced Excel, SAP R/3 knowledge would be a plus

OUR OFFER

- The possibility to gain new experiences and to implement theoretical knowledge in practical solutions
- Exciting, challenging and creative tasks
- Interesting projects
- An open-minded team and international environment
- An attractive compensation

“Change the world, love your job!” At Texas Instruments (TI), you will have the opportunity to learn and grow – and create world-changing technology. For more than 80 years, TI has continually reinvented itself by believing in people with endless curiosity who refuse to leave the world just how they found it. From developing leading-edge semiconductor technologies and practicing responsible manufacturing, to caring for our employees and communities, innovating a better world is in our DNA. Come discover TI and why you belong here.

APPLY NOW!

www.careers.ti.com